BIOGRAPHY

Mafalda Vasques

Born in Beja, Mafalda Vasques began singing at eight with the Carmo Children's and Youth Choir. She studied for eight years at the Regional Conservatory of Baixo Alentejo — Music Theory, Piano, Choir, Vocal Technique and Portuguese Guitar — foundations of her interpretative skill. Fado came into her life at twelve, thanks to her grandfather João, and 'Que Deus me Perdoe' was the first one she learned.

She entered numerous fado competitions and won in Lagoa, Tavira, Faro, Lagos and Vila do Bispo — in the latter, the Cerveja Sagres Fado Competition (May 2018). In 2020 she won the female category of the Grande Noite do Fado de Santa Maria Maior in Lisbon, representing the Grupo Desportivo da Mouraria; the final gala took place at the Teatro São Luiz on 9 June 2021.

In 2023/24 she joined Sara Correia's team on The Voice Portugal (RTP1) and reached the final on 7 January 2024, finishing in 4th place after singing 'Emoções' with Raquel Tavares. Her voice has reached stages across mainland Portugal and the islands, Cape Verde, Luxembourg, Spain and Poland.

In November 2025 she made her recording debut with the single Alentejo Infinito, followed by Dona Esperança (January 2026). She is now preparing her debut album, on which she also features as songwriter and composer — a journey through contemporary sounds rooted in Portuguese identity, where tradition and modernity intertwine.
