ABOUT

Three decades of gospel in Portugal

Shout! was formed in May 1995 to sing with Sara Tavares on her first album and has since become one of the benchmarks of gospel in Portugal. Gospel at heart, with soul, funk and pop never far away, the group has built a sound of its own: tight harmonies, original arrangements and a stage energy that lifts any room.

It recorded the live CD/DVD Gospeling in the Grand Auditorium of Lisbon's CCB, has played Rock in Rio Lisboa twice, and has shared stages or records with Mariza, Rui Veloso, Carminho, Boss AC, Ala dos Namorados, Angélique Kidjo and Lenine.

With 8 voices and piano or 12 voices and band, it is a concert that works in a church, a concert hall or a town square, at Christmas and all year round. Line-up subject to change.

BIOGRAPHY

The story

Shout! came together in May 1995 to sing with Sara Tavares on her debut record. In 2002 they released their first album of original material, Human Faith, and the Christmas record Shout! Natal, with Nuno Guerreiro and Olavo Bilac; over the years they have sung with Rui Veloso, João Gil, Adelaide Ferreira, Santos & Pecadores and Boss AC, and backed Mariza at Lisbon's Pavilhão Atlântico (2007).

In 2009 they played the Grand Auditorium of Lisbon's Centro Cultural de Belém in a concert recorded for Gospeling, released on CD and DVD in 2011 and described by the group as the first live gospel DVD released in Portugal. That same year they sang at the Grande Concerto de Natal at Campo Pequeno, broadcast by RTP, with Carminho, Mariza, Ricardo Ribeiro and Rui Veloso.

They played Rock in Rio Lisboa in 2012, with Boss AC, and again in 2014 on the Palco Mundo, with Lenine, Angélique Kidjo and Rui Veloso. Their recreation of 'Caçador de Sóis' with Ala dos Namorados was nominated at the 2013 Globos de Ouro. Then came the singles 'Sorri', 'Make It Right' and 'Fall Behind', the SPA galas at the CCB and, in 2021, a project that brought 100 voices together in 'A Sky Full of Stars'.

In 2023 they performed at the PLAY Portuguese Music Awards gala. In 2025 they marked 30 years with a Christmas tour taking in Sintra, Guimarães, Aveiro, Ponte de Lima, Loulé, Olhão and Coruche, and on 28 March 2026 they celebrated the anniversary at the Centro Cultural Gil Vicente in Sardoal.

The core line-up brings together twelve voices, four sopranos, four altos, two baritones and two tenors. The group is led by tenor Ricardo Quintas, its managing director and arranger. Line-up subject to change.
